History Taking in Medicine and Surgery

Author: Fishman, Cullen
Edition: 3
Pages: 464
ISBN: 9789385062834

Description

An essential revision and reference tool, this title takes a unique approach to history taking that reflects real-life practice.
Each chapter focuses on a prevailing symptom and covers the types of question needed to reach the correct diagnosis. With practice cases that cover scenarios seen often in general practice and hospital settings, this title is ideal for all medical students and doctors preparing for examinations or working on the wards.
About the authors

Jonathan Fishman

BM BCh (Oxon.), MA (Cantab.), BA (Hons.), MRCS (Eng.), DOHNS (RCS Eng.), PhD
Jonathan is a Specialist Registrar in ENT and a member of the Royal College of Surgeons. He graduated with a triple first class honours degree in Natural Sciences and completed his clinical training at Oxford University. He has extensive teaching experience and is primary author of six undergraduate and postgraduate medical textbooks.
Laura Cullen

MB BS, BSc (Hons.), nMRCGP, DFSRH
Laura qualified from Imperial College London with a first class honours BSc in Endocrinology. She undertook her medical rotations at St Mary’s Hospital and Hammersmith Hospital before joining Barnet VTS, where she completed the MRCGP.